

Mr G, must answer

29, RUE D'ASTORG

PARIS

☎ ANJOU 16-88

Jan. 14, 1930.
Answered.

23. XII. 29

My dear John,

Skinner tells me that you have a coin of Euphemia, and also that you were kind enough to say that you would let me have a photograph or cast of it.

My friend Hayford Peirce, 214 Cedar St., Bangor, Me., about whom I think I spoke to you, has a big collection of Byzantine coins, among them an Euphemia, and it would interest him particularly to be able to compare his with yours. If it were not too inconvenient during your absence from the U. S., I should be very grateful if you could let him have a cast of that Euphemia (both sides).

With best wishes for Xmas and the New Year to you both,

Yours sincerely

Royall Tyler

29, RUE D'ASTORG

PARIS

F ANJOU 16-88

24. XII. 29

My dear John.

It occurred to me after writing yesterday that you might care to see the enclosed, which touches on a numismatic theme -

Yours sincerely

Royall Tyler

Rome, January 14, 1930.

Dear Royall:

I wish I could help out in regard to the coin of Euphemia but it is locked up in my safe at home to which nobody but myself has access, and I haven't even a description of it or any note about it here. In fact, I almost begin to wonder whether I have such a piece or not, but I will tell you what I will do. When I go home, which I hope will be in May, I shall look it up and if possible have a cast made of it for your friend Hayford Peirce.

Many thanks for the essay you sent me. I have been immensely struck by the beauty of the reproductions, but I have not yet had time to read the text short as it is. These last few weeks here have been overwhelmingly occupied.

With very best wishes to both of you in which Alice joins,

Sincerely yours,

Royall Tyler, Esquire,
29, Rue D'Astorg,
Paris, France.

Rome, January 14, 1930.

Dear Royall:

I wish I could help out in regard to the coin of Euphemis but it is locked up in my safe at home to which nobody but myself has access, and I haven't even a description of it or any note about it here. In fact, I almost begin to wonder whether I have such a piece or not, but I will tell you what I will do.
When I go home, which I hope will be in May, I shall look it up and if possible have a cast made of it for your friend Hayford Peirce.

Many thanks for the essay you sent me. I have been immensely struck by the beauty of the reproductions, but I have not yet had time to read the text short as it is. These last few weeks here have been overwhelmingly occupied.

With very best wishes to both of you in which

Alise joins,

Sincerely yours,

Royall Tyler, Esq.,

89, Rue d'Astorg,

Paris, France.

Box VIII Folder 19

Rome: Royall Tyler

1930

(JWG)

ACID FREE
PAPER
MADE IN U.S.A.

